Volunteer needed to serve on Rec & Parks Advisory Committee

The Johns Creek Recreation and Parks Advisory Committee (RPAC) currently has a board post available to fill the unexpired term of Post I, (current term expires Feb. 28, 2020).

The RPAC serves as an advisory board to the city council in matters of policy and administration of the city-owned parks and recreational programs operated within the city-owned parks. This committee submits recommendations on policies and proposed ordinances to council on matters they deem important for the community. The city council is not required to act upon these recommendations. All members must reside in the city while they serve and shall regularly attend monthly meetings. The RPAC currently meets at 6:30 p.m. the third Wednesday of the month.

The self-nomination period is open for 30 days (May 17 – June 17), all nominees are then provided to council members for their review. Council recommendations are then provided to the Mayor, who reviews all recommendations and provides his nominees to the Council for their consideration. This board appointment is scheduled to be filed during the Aug. 19, 2019 City Council Meeting.

July 9th - Planning Commission meeting: Text Amendment A-19-001

Background: With an increase in the number of vape shops in Johns Creek, at the June 3, 2019 Council Meeting the Mayor and City Council initiated a Text Amendment (A-19-001) to the City of Johns Creek Zoning Ordinance to add related definitions and limit the floor area dedicated to sale or advertisement of vape or vape-related products to no more than twenty-five percent (25%).

July 11th - Zoning Public Participation Meeting TBD. No cases filed at this time.

Planning Commission meetings are held at City Hall Council Chambers, 11360 Lakefield Drive, Johns Creek, GA 30097.

Outdoor burning prohibited May 1 through Sept. 30

A state-mandated burn ban on all outdoor burning is in effect from May 1 through Sept. 30.

The Georgia Environmental Protection Division imposes the ban to comply with Federal Clean Air Regulations.

For more information about the burn ban, see the outdoor Burning Guidelines on the City website. Submit an Outdoor Burn Request using this online form. Questions? Call Johns Creek Fire Marshal Chad McGiboney at 678-512-3363 or email him at FireMarshal@JohnsCreekGA.gov.

Celebrate America at the city's July 3 Independence Day event

Mark your calendars and save the date for your new Independence Day tradition complete with a picnic, music, and fireworks! Bring your family and friends to the City of Johns Creek's Independence Day Celebration at Newtown Park.

Celebrate our country's independence with friends and family on Wednesday, July 3, beginning at 6 p.m. Grab a spot on the terraced amphitheater lawn with a home-packed picnic or delicious food from Patty Wagon, Southern Crust, Lat's Taco Bout It, Peace of Pita, and King of Pops. Cold beer and wine will be available for purchase.

Crystal Clear Band will take the Mark Burkhalter Amphitheater stage. Crystal Clear is sure to keep people on their feet from start to finish. The group performs an exciting blend of Classic R&B, Jazz, and current dance favorites. So, be sure to bring your dancing shoes!

And if that's not enough, top-off the night with a fireworks extravaganza! Fireworks will begin after sunset.

For those looking for a little more room, you can purchase round tables, for up to eight people, under the amphitheater by calling 678-512-3200. Reserve yours today!
